Welcome to the Village

Our first movie for 2016 will be on 6 March. It is a well reviewed comedy with Maggie Smith playing the lead. We will email out the flyer with the times for the movie and coffee closer to the date.

Our first TOS committee meeting is Sunday 21 February. This meeting will be a 'planning' meeting and we will set the direction for the coming year. We will decide where our donations will be sent and we will brain storm on ways to raise money. After all, we can only support organizations in need, if we have funds to give.

Tim Boyd, the International TOS President was asked for fund raising ideas. His suggestion was to plan an inspiring project and then invite people to donate and help us complete our project.

We did this with the Xmas Back Packs. Judy, our Treasurer did a budget and advised the Committee we would need $5,000 to meet our target. Of course, we didn't have $5,000. The TS donated $1,000 and the TOS matched this amount. The remaining $3,000 was donated by generous individuals who were inspired to make a difference for Perth homeless people.

All TOS members are welcome to join us at this planning meeting. If you are not a member, but wish to attend, you can join on the day. Membership costs $5.00. We need your fresh ideas and suggestions.

Best wishes

Rhonda Phillips,
TOS Chairperson

2016 Convention

Jean Carroll, National TOS Coordinator
Tim Boyd, International TOS President
Travis James, National TOS Secretary

The National TS Convention was held on the beautiful UWA campus. Tim Boyd, the International President of the TS and TOS, and his wife Lily Boyd attended the Convention.

Tim made 4 or 5 presentations to the Convention. His presentations were professional and interesting. He has spent many years working for the TS/TOS in the USA and is currently the USA TS President as well. He is a very busy man, but of course, they say if you want to get something done, give it to a busy person.

His talks articulated his vision and summarized the actions he and his team have already taken. By the time his 5 year plan is completed, there will have been many changes.

During the convention, Tim agreed to attend a spontaneous session with the members of the TOS. This meeting was well attended. We also held the TOS National AGM, which was run by our National Coordinator and National Secretary.

Jean reported on the recent TOS trip to Cambodia. The TOS travelers gave us a glowing report on the trip. We are hopeful that Jean will agree to organize another trip, perhaps in November 2017.

It was great opportunity to meet the TOS members from other Australian States. New and old friendships were strengthened. There is a positive vibe for the future.
