Micro Loan Recipients

Ntipapa from Kenya

Ntipapa is 59 years old and married. He and his wife have been blessed with ten children. Ntipapa plans to use the loan to buy more cows and goats. This is his seventh loan. He has successfully repaid the previous loans. He hopes to grow his business and prosper, which will enable him to provide for his family.

Welcome to the Village

Firstly, an update on the Cambodian Ankor Wat tour. If you are toying with the idea of joining this trip, I am happy to tell you that 3 people from the West are going. You will be travelling with people you know.

Now, to the TOS catering for the TS Easter retreat. It was a very happy, warm weekend. As usual, the TOS provided a feast. We raised $1,000 which we immediately donated to the Pakistan Home School that we support.

As fast as we raise the money, we give it away. We have donated a further $130 to buy 10 solar lights for children sponsored by the Pakistani "Child Health & Education Foundation". These lights enable children to do homework at night. Education is the key to employment and the ability to make your own informed judgments.

We have also made two new $25 micro loans through the organization KIVA.

♥ Best wishes

"The Friendship Bridge Trust Bank" from the highlands of Guatemala

The Friendship Bridge Trust was formed by seven enthusiastic women who want to improve their lives. Encarnacion, the 31 yr old President and mother of 4 children, has had only 1 year of schooling, but she has great leadership qualities.

The ladies produce traditional textiles and agricultural products.

They understand the tremendous benefit of education and their focus will be to provide education for their children. The ladies are poised to step into a brighter future, benefiting themselves, their families and their communities.
